

Why do customized candles or car fresheners?

When it comes to gift giving, consumers want something with a personalized touch. Since candles are known to trigger happy memories, By the Bay Botanicals has taken this to the next level. Our candles are known to be "like a vacation in a jar" pairing aromas with popular travel destinations.

This concept also works for events and branding opportunities. Whether you are hoping to have the perfect wedding favor highlighting a destination wedding, or a business wanting a special VIP gift or giveaway at a business expo - we can help. Now when anyone smells your custom creation, they will think of you long after the candle is used up.

We also wholesale our candles to small businesses either for branding or to sell along with other merchandise he/she offers. For more information on wholesale or just to place an order please call us today!

Note: All candles are made in the store's workshop so turn around time is quick!

Note the unique frost like appearance!

Step 2

Pick a Fragrance.

On the back of the brochure is a current list of fragrances we offer. Choose from spa, seasonal, ocean, florals, earthy, etc. To learn more about the fragrances or want one that isn't listed, call or email us!

Step 3

Pick a Color.

Choose from current colors we offer (photos can be found on our website) or if you can give us a sample of a cloth swatch or paint sample strip, we'll do our best to match it!

Do note, if candles are displayed in direct sunlight they can fade.

Car fresheners do not come in colors, however you can choose the type of color combination you want for the packaging.

GENERAL INFO

The process takes roughly 2-3 weeks from design to delivery. Cost varies depending on quantity and product. A 2 dozen minimum is required. The cost starts at the regular retail price, however we offer a buy 11 get the 12th candle/product free special. There is a one time $25.00 graphics set up fee. Payment is due at the time of order. You will get an email with a mock of your label design for your approval. Once approved, your order will then go into production and as soon as it is ready, we'll call you! It's that easy!

Step 4

Pick a Name.

It's all in the name. While our traditional line of products highlight popular travel destinations, customized names could include wedding dates, couples names, company name, event name and so much more. We do recommend using the scent in the name to help recipients tie it together. To name your creation think about the theme or idea you want to convey. If you are having a Maryland themed wedding, the name and aroma could capture something significant to where you met or location of the wedding.

LAST, BUT NOT LEAST... THE DESIGN!

What makes a custom designed product fun and personal is the photo/logo that brings it together. Email us your high resolution logo or photo in jpeg, png, or gif format. Must be at least 300 dpi. Have questions or need ideas? Call or email Michelle Sholund, owner and candle maker via the contact info on this brochure!
